

Serenity Crawley Curriculum Map KS1

English

Spoken Language: sharing opinions

I can read and respond to poetry

I can write setting descriptions

I can discuss my views

Sharing opinions: agreeing and disagreeing

I can use strategies to build on my comprehension skills

I can identify features of an information text

I can respond to the story by thinking from the characters' perspectives

Texts: Humorous poetry

The Diversity of Life by Nicola Davies, The Great Kapok Tree by Lynne Cherry, The proudest Blue by Ibtiyah Muhammad, Antinuke and other authors, Grandad's Island

Art: Me, Myself and others – clay sculptures

DT: Textiles

Science

Growing Plants

Use of everyday materials

Humanities

History – Significant individuals who changed Britain

Geography – Contrasting locality what is it like to live in Jamaica?

Physical Education

Basketball

Dribbling - close control

Passing – technique and power

Shooting – technique and power

Maths

Using, Applying, Statistics

To solve simple practical problems involving counting to 20

To solve simple practical problems involving addition and subtraction

Complete, read and interpret information in tables, including timetables

To sort objects into two given categories

Personal and Social Development

Global and Community Engagement

Personal Growth and Future Planning